About Me

Jean Tien, intuitive and creator of The S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Method™, has over 20 years of corporate experience. Despite the success she's achieved in her career, Jean never felt like any of her achievements, no matter how grand, were enough. So, she pushed herself harder to do more and achieve more but it got to a place where she began to fear her success because she was too busy.

This is why Jean is passionate about empowering and supporting other Executive Moms who are ready to stop fearing their success so that they can finally achieve even more in life and reach their fullest potential.

She created S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Method™ to help women up-level their success without the overwhelm and stress. Jean incorporates this proprietary method in her executive workshops, as well as with her VIP coaching clients, where the results have been practically instantaneous!
